Presents

Tuesday @ 2, 2017

Members Free/Non-Members $5

Please note: Programs are Subject to Change

January

31th The History of Bittner's Bakery: For many generations, this bakery has been satisfying Lake Geneva's collective sweet tooth. Join Amy Peterburs as she tells this tasty story.

February

7th Lake Geneva's Historical Chicago Connections: Author and Docent Jim Davis explores Lake Geneva's Historical Chicago Connections.

14th Birds of Wisconsin: Avid Birder Wayne Rhode speaks about Wisconsin birds and their habitats.

21th The History of Lake Ivanhoe and Jeremiah Brumfield: Nitchka Piantino; Great Granddaughter of Lake Ivanhoe founder, Jeremiah Brumfield shares this fascinating story of this community.

28th History of the Lake Geneva Symphony Orchestra: Join Mike Frazier and Pam Kundert and learn how Lake Geneva began it's very own Symphony Orchestra.

March

7th My Circus Life: Sonette Tippens shares her career as a circus aerialist.

14th Geneva Theater Reopens: Get the scoop on the newly renovated historical theater.

21th To be announced

28th To be announced

Continued on back

April

4th Chicago Stockyard Fire of 1910: Bob McCormick reflects on this disaster.

11th Eddie Rickenbacker: Ed O'Brien returns with his portrayal of American fighter ace in World War I and Medal of Honor recipient. With 26 aerial victories, he was America's most successful fighter ace in the war. He was also a race car driver and automotive designer.

18th WWI 100th Anniversary: Ward and Gail Brown present a special program on the 100th Anniversary of World War I.

25th 1893 World's Fair: Ken Cramer revisits this spectacular event in the city of Chicago.

May

2nd To be announced

9th Come For The Cows, Stay For The Cheese: Terry and Denise Woods of Highfield Farm Creamery (the only farmstead artisan cheesemakers in the Geneva Lakes area) will be talking about the history of cheese making from ancient times to present and how they make cheese from the milk of their small grass-fed Jersey her on State Line Rd in Walworth.

16th The West End of Geneva Lake and It's History: Presenter Frank Breneisen will talk about Indians, early settlers, the train, village businesses and corporate development.

23rd To be announced

30th To be announced

June

6th Victorian Weddings: Pat Cramer explores the traditions and trends of weddings in the Victorian era.

13th To be announced

19th To be announced

26th To be announced

255 Mill Street
Lake Geneva, WI 53147
262-248-6060
Genevalakemuseum.org

LIKE US ON facebook