

Presents

Tuesday @ 2

Members Free/Non-Members $5

Please note: Programs are Subject to Change

December 2017

- 5th Kaye's Park 1874-1911: A Geneva Lake Resort ahead of it's time and known as a hub for the festive and social gatherings of the wealthy. Helen Brandt, Jim Davis and Ed Schwinn present her in all her glory.
- 12th The History of George Williams College: From the YMCA heritage to Aurora University and the popular Music by the Lake summer series. Presented by Tom McReynolds.
- 19th Christmas Carols, Cookies and Customs: The Festivities will be led by Helen Brandt. Please bring your favorite home baked Christmas cookies or treat to share.
- 26th No Tuesday @ 2 — Merry Christmas!

January 2018

- 2nd No Tuesday @ 2 — Happy New Year!
- 9th The History of Gordy's Marine in Fontana: Anchored on the West End since 1955 under the ownership of Gordy Whowell. His son Tom Whowell will document the past 63 years of service on Geneva Lake.
- 16th 1917-2017: One Hundred Years of White Sox Baseball: From Snowballs to Baseballs ... enjoy some baseball "Hot Stove League" chatter as we get ready for spring training and the 2018 baseball season! Local author Mark Pienkos shares his passion and why he wrote his book.
- 23rd Lake Geneva Canopy Tours: Canopy Tours Director of Sales, Seth Elder will take us on a virtual adventure in the great outdoors!

January 2018 cont.

30th John Notz and Museum Artifacts: Mr. Notz will be discussing the background of several pieces that he was instrumental in obtaining here at Geneva Lake Museum.

February 2018

6th The History of Mardi Gras: Presenter Ken Cramer returns with the true story of Mardi Gras.

13th To Be Announced

20th Geneva Inn — Our History: The Geneva Inn will present the rich history of their fabulous Location overlooking Button's Bay.

27th Lucius Newberry Discovery: Bill Ehrhardt tells the fascinating story of three divers who discovered the wreckage of the Geneva Lake passenger boat in 1982.