

Presents Tuesday @ 2, 2017

Members Free/Non-Members $5

Please note: Programs are Subject to Change

March

- 7th My Circus Life: Sonette Tippens shares her career as a circus aerialist.
- 14th Geneva Theater Reopens: Get the scoop on the newly renovated historical theater. This Program is being held at Geneva Theater on Broad Street.
- 21th "Talking Shoes:" In anticipation of our soon to open Shoe Exhibit, You are invited to bring a pair of your own shoes and tell their story.
- 28th No Tuesday @ 2: Preparing for the opening of our new Exhibit "Shoe La La."

April

- 4th Chicago Stockyard Fire of 1910: Bob McCormick reflects on this disaster.
- 11th Eddie Rickenbacker: Ed O'Brien returns with his portrayal of American fighter ace in World War I and Medal of Honor recipient. With 26 aerial victories, he was America's most successful fighter ace in the war. He was also a race car driver and automotive designer.
- 18th WWI 100th Anniversary: Ward and Gail Brown present a special program on the 100th Anniversary of World War I.
- 25th 1893 World's Fair: Ken Cramer revisits this spectacular event in the city of Chicago.

.

May

- 2nd Rustic Roads: Journalist Sandra Machaj will direct us to beautiful area Rustic Roads just in in time to see spring in all it's glory.
- 9th Come For The Cows, Stay For The Cheese: Terry and Denise Woods of Highfield Farm Creamery (the only farmstead artisan cheesemakers in the Geneva Lakes area) will be talking about the history of cheese making from ancient times to present and how they make cheese from the milk of their small grass-fed Jersey her on State Line Rd in Walworth.
- 16th The West End of Geneva Lake and It's History: Presenter Frank Breneisen will talk about Indians, early settlers, the train, village businesses and corporate development.
- 23rd The Belfry Theater: Learn about this Theater's rich past, present and future.
- 30th Trappist-1 Discovery: Join Yerkes Observatory's Dan Koehler as he tells about the newly Discovered planets.

June

- 6th Victorian Weddings: Pat Cramer explores the traditions and trends of weddings in the Victorian era.
- 13th Historic Stepping Stone House: Owner Charlene Klein will present the history of this beautiful Victorian home and it's previous owners that is open to the public in the summer months.
- 20th To be announced
- 27th To be announced

