

Presents

Tuesday @ 2, 2017

Members Free/Non-Members $5

Please note: Programs are Subject to Change

September

- 5th Northwestern Military and Naval Academy: In honor of our new exhibit, Chris Jacobson Brookes will revisit the history of the academy that graced the south shore of Geneva Lake for nearly 100 years.
- 12th Lake Geneva Then (1955) and Now: Joan Meginniss and the class of '55 revisit what Lake Geneva was like back in the day.
- 19th No Tuesday @ 2 this week
- 26th History of the Lake Geneva Fire Department: Chief Ryan Derrick will tell the history of the Lake Geneva Fire Department and document his family's 4 generations of service.

October

- 3rd Lakeland Animal Shelter: Join us as director Kristen Perry tells about the history, present and future of this wonderful organization.
- 10th Letters from the Heart: Author Dennis Depcik will tell the heartwarming story based on his book, Wouldn't It Be Something. 50 years ago he was an Army officer who fell in love with his future wife through three years of letter writing.
- 17th Levi Leiter to Lake Geneva Manor: Historian Sonja Akright shares the history of Chicago real estate tycoon and owner of Geneva Lake estate Linden Lodge (now Lake Geneva Manor).
- 24th History of the Water Safety Patrol: Operations Director Ted Pankau will present the story of This unique, non-profit organization founded in 1920 by Simeon B. Chapin.
- 31st Sordid and Scandalous Lake Geneva "Armchair" walking tour: Presented by Black Point Estate. Hear the historic gossip of Lake Geneva including the dish on a 1950's bank robbery, ties to prohibition gangsters, tales of the Lake Geneva sea serpent and more!

November

7th To be announced

14th Eastland Disaster of 1915: Chicago's working poor were expecting a day in luxury. They instead faced a horrific calamity on Lake Michigan. Presented by Bob McCormick.

21st No Tuesday @ 2

28th To be announced

255 Mill Street
Lake Geneva, WI 53147
262-248-6060
Genevalakemuseum.org

